Editorial

This year marks the 93RD anniversary of the beginning of the ANZAC legend when many young men from Australia and New Zealand stormed the beaches at Gallipoli at dawn on April 25th, 1915. Their courage and determination saw the birth of the ANZAC legend that is celebrated in all parts of our great country on April 25th every year.

ANZAC DAY also pays tribute to the brave men and women who served their country in all the conflicts that Australia has been involved in from the BOER WAR at the turn of the 19th century to the present day.

The Lilydale branch of the R&SLA will conduct the Dawn Service at the Cenotaph on the corner of Lalla Rd beginning at 6am. The 11am service is also held at the Cenotaph and is followed by a "cuppa" in the Memorial Hall on the Main Rd. All residents of the district are welcome to attend both services and it would be really nice to see you there this year.

This day, however, is not about glorifying war but is instead a remembrance of the sacrifices made by others, that we may enjoy the life style and freedom that we have today.

Many thousands of the young men who left their homes and loved ones paid the ultimate sacrifice. These perhaps were the lucky ones as they did not have to endure the pain of being wounded and having to live with the memories of the horrors that they had seen.

Those who returned home rarely talked of their experiences but lived with the nightmare of war for the rest of their lives.

Sadly many countries do not have these freedoms and Australian service men and women are still engaged in conflict in other parts of the World.

Here at home we have freedom of speech and the right to peaceful protest to voice our opinions on anything and everything. Unfortunately sometimes these protests get out of hand and can cause conflict with people holding different views on whatever is being discussed or protested about.

The media is full of controversial issues every day, and while I am not going to air my views on these subjects, I think we all need to take a step backwards and take a look at what is really best for our wonderful part of the world.

Sonnet for ANZAC Day

Sound the Last Post again, lest we forget the freedom that we cherish has been bought - not found like mushrooms in the field; the debt is ours to pay, mindful of those who fought and fell - yet still they held the torch aloft!
 May we remain as zealous to withstand the traitors who would make our fibres soft,
 as well as enemies beyond the land.

The trumpet has the power to move us still,
 and though the debris of a flood of years lies over hand and mind, an aching thrill comes rising perilously close to tears.
 Sound the Last Post to hold the memory bright,
 then sound the Rouse and keep the torch alight.

R.&S.L.A News:

We are saddened by the loss of our Patron Mr. Tim Denny who passed away on the 24th Feb. 2008. Tim Denny served in the Air Force from 1940 to 1946 and was awarded the Distinguished Flying Cross (DFC) and Bar. He held the rank of Squadron Leader, flying approx. 115 operational flights. I believe the normal was 30 flights! His first tour was with Bomber Command. The second in North Africa and third in North Africa and Italy.

He has been a long serving member of our Sub Branch and as a normal member has delivered several Dawn Service Addresses. He held the position of Treasurer until limited by age and has been our Patron for the past three years.

We offer our condolences to his wife Joan and family.

Anzac Day

Dawn Service at 6am. Warm coffee available beforehand and after the ceremony breakfast in the clubrooms.

11 a.m Service to be held at the Cenotaph with Rev. Brian Cole. At the conclusion you are invited to the Memorial Hall where morning tea will be served.

Our next meeting will be 17th April at 7.30 pm.

Vale: EFK (Tim) Denny DFC*.

I first met Tim at the Lavender Farm when I was a young Flight Lieutenant in 1977. My interest was to learn about monoculture here in the north-east. I can remember two things about Tim then: Firstly, he was appalled to learn that I was a serving member of the RAAF (aircrew at that) and that I was sporting six weeks growth that I had accumulated during my period of long service leave. Secondly, he wouldn't part with any information unless I worked with him. I can recall assisting with his plethora of selective weedicide he carried on his belt and later, after Tim finally succumbed and accepted the value of Bridestowe as a tourist destination, spreading lavender florets out to dry.

There is no question that Tim Denny was a leader in his field of essential oil production, having been appointed as a consultant to a number of foreign countries. Tim was designing distillation plants into his final year and never lost interest in what became for him a labour of love.

The earliest photo I have seen of Tim was taken in 1928 when he was attending Launceston Grammar School as a young boy. Referring to the photo and his diminutive size, Tim spoke of himself as the "school mascot". On completion he went to the UK to study engineering and was there when the war broke out in 1939. Explaining to me why he had joined the RAF and not the RAAF he said that it was practise to join the services of the country you were in at the time. I did remark that I was pleased he wasn't studying in Germany. It was while serving in the UK that Tim met Joan, also serving with the RAF who was to become his wife and life partner of 63 years.

Tim Denny served with great distinction during the Second World War as a navigator on Bristol Blenheim bombers. He served both in the UK and North Africa theatres where in the latter he was responsible for the planning and discharge of a number of successful bombing raids against German forces in Italy. Such was his contribution that Tim was decorated with the award of the Distinguished Flying Cross on no less than two occasions.

Tim's dedication to King and Country during active service was reflected in his development of Bridestowe. Despite being recognised internationally for his skills, Tim was humble enough to admit that there were still things to learn. I recall visiting him in the still house at Bridestowe during harvest one evening in, I think, 1981, to be greeted with a beer and a comment from Tim: "Well, today we have learnt three things.....".

I remember having dinner with Tim at the Battle of Britain celebration in Hobart in September 1993 following the sale of Bridestowe. Tim was on radio earlier that day and said that he thought he had better get out of it before he 'popped off'. I remember asking him that night when he thought he might 'pop off'.

We were fortunate enough to enjoy his presence in Lilydale for a further fifteen years and for that I am personally grateful, not only for his friendship, but also for his wisdom and his counsel. I shall miss him. We shall miss him.

To Joan, Anthony (Jak) and Susan and families, our sincere condolences at the loss of a husband, a father and a leader in our community.

Lest we forget.

Mary Walsh Centre News:

What a wonderful tomato crop the garden has yielded this year thanks to the tender, loving care provided by gardener, Owen Sims. It always reminds me of my childhood to see the inventive way Owen protects the young plants from the frost. My dad employed similar devices, such as a bracken fern or two pieces of old fence paling (as Owen does) to shelter the young plants. Debbie, the centre's cook, has used them for creating tasty casseroles, sandwiches and salads. The store bought ones pale in comparison after eating these superbly flavoured, delicately scented beauties!

On the 6th March, we met the "Lady Launceston" for a cruise around Kings Wharf, Sea Port and up the Gorge. Captain Jonno's commentary was light and entertaining as well as informative. A delicious barbeque lunch, cooked by Debbie and Bob, the bus driver, was enjoyed at Kings Park. Everyone's appetite seemed stimulated by the fresh air, sea breeze and the wonderful cooking aroma. Much positive feedback was received from clients after this outing.

Dianne Brezinski, Nutrimerics consultant, led a pamper morning where foot spas, foot massage and skin softening treatments were available. Even the bus driver was treated to a foot soak!

Tony Mitchell kindly donated clay for the making of commemorative plaques that will be mounted on the wall of the centre's entrance. It is expected that the tiles will be ready for mounting prior to the centre's 20th Anniversary on the 3rd July and will form part of the display we are planning. All current members will be encouraged and assisted to create a tile and we intend to make tiles for all past members as well. If you are a relative of a past member and would like to make the tile yourself we would be happy to provide the clay and any assistance you may require. Please ring Darian at the centre, 63951561, to arrange this.

Our new printer has been installed by Tom and Glen Dancer, making printing and copying a breeze. Tom and Glen, I thank you both, most sincerely, as I know this took you late into the night.

Heather has provided musical entertainment and accompanied our singing sessions held fortnightly for which we are grateful. We would welcome anyone who would like to join us for these communal sing-a-longs. Don't be shy! Having real talent is not necessary, just enthusiasm for joining in to sing some old-time songs. The centre has large print books with all the words and Heather plays the tunes at an easy-to-sing pitch.

We would appreciate donations of fairly recent magazines for our centre's coffee table, especially gardening ones.

Lions Club News:

In early April, club members enjoyed the Hollybank Treetops adventure and a barbecue after the journey. A thoroughly enjoyable experience right in our own backyard!

Recent donations include $200 to the Lions Sightfirst campaign and $50 to the Queensland Flood Relief Appeal.

Later this year, the Club hopes to hold a Teddy Bears Picnic in the Hollybank Forest. All bears are invited, together with their owners – both young and old! More details in the next issue of the Progressive.

Members will be attending the Anzac Day breakfast and morning service later this month.

Don't forget that we still have bagged cow manure for $4.50 ring 63 95 1323 with your order.

Senior Citizens Club News

Our summer pennants have finished for 2008 with Paul playing in the winning team.

Congratulations must go out to Paul also to our four other players who played in the Senior Citizens state titles at the Deloraine sports centre on March 5th. Muriel, Charlie, Doreen and Jeff missed by one shot.

Thirty two teams travelled from around the state to take part. The team arrived home with a trophy which they hold for 12months and return it next year. Last week one team travelled to Deloraine, very cold, good food but no trophies.

Our carnival is in the hall on April 2nd, we have enough teams to fill all our mats.

A car load of bowlers are heading to Beaconsfield on Friday for their 30th birthday which is always a very enjoyable afternoon.

We would like to see new faces come along and join us.

Our next meeting will be April 8th at 1.30pm in the club rooms.

See you all next month.

Robyn East.

Pharmacy News:

Heartburn / indigestion or reflux:

This is often described as a burning feeling that moves up the food pipe (oesophagus) towards the throat. Other symptoms include burping up stomach juices, suddenly getting extra saliva in your mouth, a cough that cannot be explained, a 'lump' deep in your throat.

The muscle ring, which is between the stomach and the oesophagus, sometimes does not close properly and the acid contents from the stomach wash up into the oesophagus. This causes burning to the oesophagus, which is painful.

Some things can put pressure on the muscle ring and force it open – such as eating large meals, eating too quickly, not chewing properly, eating then exercising, bending over or straining, lying flat, being overweight, being pregnant or eating spicy acidic fatty foods.

Some things can cause the muscle ring to lose its strength or tone; Getting older, alcohol, smoking, caffeine drinks, stress and anxiety, some medicines. Aspirin and anti-inflammatory medicines can aggravate heartburn.

Any chest pain should be discussed with your doctor, as there are many illnesses that can cause chest pain. If you have heartburn there are ways to prevent it occurring; eat smaller meals, eat slowly, chew well, cut down alcohol and caffeine drinks, stop smoking, raise the head end of your bed by about 1 brick, lose weight, talk to your doctor or pharmacist about your medicines.

Antacid tablets or mixtures are often used to relieve heartburn (e.g. Mylanta, Gaviscon, Quickeze). These are quite effective but if you need to use them most days, then you probably need something else to prevent the heartburn from occurring. There are many acid-suppressing medications available from your doctor or pharmacist (e.g. ranitidine or Zantac). When taken every day, they prevent heartburn. Chronic heartburn can cause damage to the oesophagus, and it may require many months of acid-suppressing medications to heal the oesophagus.

Heartburn is very common, but you don't need to suffer. Ask us what may be most appropriate for you.

CWA notes:

Are you like the rest of us with an accumulation of goods that are too good to throw out but you know that you will probably never need them again? Why not join us and have your own END OF FINANCIAL YEAR CLEARANCE SALE and turn those unwanted items into cash, remember that one man's (or woman's) junk is another's man's treasure.

CWA will be holding a Market Day at the Memorial Hall on Saturday June 28th and for just $5.00 you can have your own stall.

Contact 6395 6142 or 6395 1267 for more details, all money raised by CWA will go to aid Cancer Research and Motor Neurone Disease.

Our March meeting was held as usual on the first Wednesday of the month in the Old Courtroom with seven members and one visitor present.

The roll call, items for Baby Box, yielded a variety of singlets, jackets and booties which will be passed on the Northern Welfare Officer.

We will be donating to Frea Peschar's endeavour to raise money in for Cancer Research during March and send our congratulations to her, well done Frea.

The recent Woolworth's Drought Relief Day held with the participation of CWA branches throughout Australia was very successful. All money raised in Tasmania will stay in the state to help those affected here.

In April Lilydale Branch will be celebrating our 69th birthday and will be gathering at Jennifer's at 10.30 with lunch to share followed by our meeting.

Neighbourhood Watch Report:

13 people turned up for this month's meeting. We were surprised to see Lorna and Kevin there as well.

The photo that was taken at our Christmas dinner was a very good one and we thank David for giving each one of us a small copy. David presented Lorna & Kevin with a gift in appreciation from all of us, for all their untiring work that they have put into Neighbourhood Watch in our area. It has been a great effort and has really kept the group going. Thanks Lorna and Kevin.

As reported in our last newsletter, the yellow line in front of the Village Green is a no parking area, but it has faded in the time it has been there but we are hoping to get it repainted so that it is much clearer to see.

The Scarecrow Day that was to be held at the Providence Vineyards was cancelled due to a poor response this year.

As the Police Officer from Launceston was unable to come to take the photos of the Zone Leaders, Constable Lindsay Godfrey was asked to do it and they have now been done.

It is advisable to change the batteries in your smoke alarm systems NOW ready for the winter months.

Police report:

On March 4th a Lilydale High School student had a wallet containing cash and personal papers stolen from a school bag which was left unattended. The wallet was later found empty in someone else's bag but the owner of that bag was not the offender.

2 assault cases were reported in the Lilydale area during the last month.

True or False?

It was the accepted practice in Babylon 4,000 years ago that for a month after the wedding, the bride's father would supply his son-in-law with all the mead he could drink. Mead is a honey beer and because their calendar was lunar based, this period was called the honey month, which we know today as the honeymoon.

Worlds Greatest Shave:

I thank the people of Lilydale, all those who individually, or as part of the many local organisations, have so generously sponsored me in my participation of the 'Worlds Greatest Shave', an event to raise money for the treatment of Leukaemia and other related blood diseases.

It has confirmed my long held relief, that people of the Lilydale district care for those who are in genuine need of support and I feel that the 'sacrifice' of my hair has been more than worthwhile, as it has resulted in raising over $2,250.00 for this worthwhile cause.

Thank you for sponsoring me, and thank you to all the people who have assured me that my new, very short hairdo 'really suits me'.

Thank you also to Sue Armes for cutting my hair on a very hot and sunny Village Green, to Maureen Poke for collecting quite a lot more money in her red collection tin and for the people attending my 'shaving'.

Motorcycle parking in CBD under review:

Launceston City Council is reviewing parking arrangements for motorcycles in the central business district.

Parking Manager Andrew Frost is in the process of compiling a report to determine additional dedicated parking areas for motorcycles, scooters and bicycles.

Council already provides motorcycle parking in the Paterson Street East and West, Elizabeth Street and Cameron Street car parks. Motorcycles can also park on standard parking meters at the current parking rates.

Mr Frost said, "Due to the increase in demand for motorcycle parking, Council officers are currently identifying more on-street parking areas suitable for motorcycle, scooter and bicycle parking."

Once these areas have been identified, Council will consult with CityProm, motorcycle and bicycle organisations for their input as well as other Council departments and state agencies.

It is anticipated the report and changes required will be implemented by June this year.

"This issue is being treated as a priority; however it is important to make sure we consult thoroughly with all the relevant stakeholders to ensure the best outcomes for the community," Mr Frost said.

Preserving and Using Fresh Tomatoes

Home grown tomatoes can't be compared to the often tasteless varieties we buy from the grocery store. If you aren't growing your own, try to find a farmer's market or vegetable stand to buy local tomatoes.

Although it's true that you shouldn't store tomatoes in the refrigerator for the best taste, if you have an abundance and want to extend storage you can put them in the refrigerator AFTER they have fully ripened for about 2 weeks or so. Home grown tomatoes often won't last this long, and it's better to use them right away or preserve. This will give you time to freeze, can or use the tomatoes.

Tomatoes can be oven dried to preserve them fairly easily. This works well with meaty tomatoes such as roma, plum or cherry varieties. Choose tomatoes that are ripe but firm and unblemished. Cut them in half lengthwise and carefully scoop out the seeds. Place them cut side up on a baking sheet that has been covered with foil and coated lightly with cooking spray. Sprinkle the tomatoes with sea or kosher salt lightly. Bake at 140°F or the very lowest setting on the oven for 10-18 hours. You want them dried but still pliable, not crispy. This is not an exact science. So much depends on the tomato, your oven and the humidity. As time goes by check tomatoes and remove any that look ready. Cherry tomatoes will dry more quickly, perhaps by a few hours. Another option is to dip the tomatoes in herb vinegar, drain and place on the baking sheets as instructed above. Either way, store in containers or plastic freezer bags in the freezer for up to a year. Use in recipes calling for oven or sun dried tomatoes.

To peel tomatoes for a recipe, heat a pot of water to boiling and place the tomatoes in a metal strainer with a handle. Hold in the water for 10 or 15 seconds to loosen the skin. Remove and peel off the skin as soon as you can handle it. You can also drop them gently in the water and remove with a slotted spoon. Either way, place the tomatoes in ice water, then peel.

I love fresh sliced tomatoes with salt by themselves, and of course adding them to salads, making salsas, or slicing to use on sandwiches. The following recipes are also great for using home grown tomatoes of any variety!

Fresh Tomato Relish

Ingredients:

Juice of 1 lemon

1 large red onion, peeled and finely sliced
4 large ripe tomatoes, cored and diced
1/2 cup each finely chopped cucumber

1/2 cup minced cilantro
1/4 cup sliced green onion
1 Tbsp. olive oil
1 Tbsp. red wine or herbal vinegar
Salt and pepper

Pour lemon juice over onion in a bowl, toss well and marinate for 30 minutes. Combine the tomato with remaining ingredients, add onions and season.

Serve with grilled lamb, pork or chicken.

Fresh Tomato and Garlic Pasta

Ingredients:

2 1/2 cups uncooked pasta
2 teaspoons olive oil
2 garlic cloves, minced
1 pound (6 medium) roma or plum tomatoes, chopped
1 tablespoon chopped fresh basil leaves
1/4 teaspoon salt
1/8 teaspoon ground pepper

Cook and drain pasta as directed on package. While pasta is cooking, heat the oil in a large skillet over medium-high heat. Cook garlic in oil for about 30 seconds, stirring frequently to avoid scorching. Stir in tomatoes.

Cook 5 to 8 minutes, stirring often, until tomatoes are soft and sauce is slightly thickened. Stir in the basil, salt and pepper. Cook for one minute longer.

Serve sauce over pasta.

Stuffed Cherry Tomatoes

Ingredients:

36 cherry tomatoes
1 package (8oz) cream cheese, softened
1 tablespoon Good Season Zesty Italian dry mix
2 tablespoons milk
3 tablespoons chopped fresh parsley

Place tomatoes stem-side down.

With a serrated knife carefully cut off the top 1/8 inch or so of each tomato.

With a small spoon or knife carefully scoop out a small amount of tomato.

Set tomatoes on a platter. In a small bowl, combine cream cheese, dressing mix, and milk.

Blend well. Fill each tomato with about 1 teaspoon of the cream cheese mixture.

Sprinkle tops with chopped parsley.

Refrigerate for up to 6 hours before serving.
